"Welcome" to your hosts : Carola and Wilfried Hartmann

In 1996 we bought our 300 year old half-timbered house and renovated it within 3 years with a lot of individual performance. Our goal was to preserve the unique atmosphere of the old building and yet to build on the ideas of living in modern times. The step between conservation , modern fire protection and energy -efficient house , we think we have succeeded .

Our guests can choose between are 2 studio and 1 apartment. You enter the large hallway with an impressive ceiling height from 5.50 m. From there you enter the sunlit room, which are incorporated with a romantic and cozy flair. We have done everything to ensure that you feel comfortable. The room have the standers of holidayhomes, which means you should bring any consumable items that you might need for your stay. If you should forget something , you can reach the nearest supermarket to foot in 3 minutes, .

Things to Do

Bad Munder is nestled in the Deister (410m above sea level) Süntel (441m above sea level) Valley . The European Trail 1 (XE1) from Norway to Sicily go'es throug Bad Munder. So it makes sense to hike through the two forestsranges and forget the daily stress.

Swimming

The open air swimmingpool is open from May to Septembers, it's also a heated pool. The Rohmelbad is in less then 5 minutes to foot.

Walks

The spa gardens with its graduation-house is an inviting place to take a walk , the town with its half-timbered houses is also worth a visit and with a call in one of the varied gastronomic which we have to offer . Everywhere you look you will also find well-maintained playgrounds for children.

Cycling

Bad Munder has a good network of cycle paths that can take you to the surrounding villages where you will find delightfull cozy courtyard cafés with home made cakes and pies. You are welcome to keep your bicycles with us . An e-bike rental is also possible in Bad Munder.

Getting there

The train station from Bad Munder is about 2.5 km away from your apartment. The train S5 will bring you from the airport and also from Hanover Train Station every 30 minutes. We recommend a reservation for a Taxi before your arrival.

The Pied Piper of Hameln on the Weser is 15 km away and easily accessible by car and train. In the state capital from lowersachsene Hanover, you are 35 minutes away by car. Our favorite is to go to the atmospheric large flea market along the river Line, every Saturday.
